

STARS

University of Central Florida
STARS

Pemberton Correspondence

Quaker Correspondence

1688-08-08

William Ingram, Phineas Pemberton, August 8, 1688

William Ingram

PRINT Identifier: 15995

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton>
University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

William Ingram, London, England, to Phineas Pemberton, [Pennsylvania], 1688-08-08, vol. 2, pg. 97, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 15995, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/210/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Dr. Fred. Phillips Pemberton / Lon. 5. 29th of 56th mo 88

Thine of 5 17th of 5th month last came to my hand with Intlosed for Roger Chadwell, wife coming in time of 5 yearly meetings, & he being then here was deliverd safe into his hands; I was truly refreshed at thy lines, not knowing before 5 receipt of them whether thy life was prolonged unto 5 time, especially being advised of a great mortality happening in that country where thy lot seems to be appointed, and of thy fathers ^{dearly} wife other 5 friend of my acquaintance with whom I had unity in 5 one eternal spirit — whereby we are united unto 5 Lord & to one another in him, & feeling 5 refreshment of his spirit to comfort 2 soules — all goes outwardly at so great a distance, & truly
I have no greater joy than to find 5 friend entered into the power of truth, as knowing it causes a good savor to arise in every place, & I believe was left by our Dr Fred. R. Longworth notwithstanding 5 small judgements of some young men: of whose would I soon 5 service & testimony of 5 faithful man; whose 5 Lord hath owned in his labours, which I am satisfied were accepted of him, & I question not but has rewarded 5 worthy servant with 5 full enjoyment of eternal life & peace, And as to 5 lot left by him with thee for 5 service of truth there, I have advised wth W. (son) &c. as thou desired, & we do agree 5 it be disposed of thee & 2 or 3 friend more, as given;
using if intimated unto us how & to whom, it will give satisfaction how on 5 account. & now Dr. Fred. I shall not omit to enlarge only cannot well pass 5 present. & I am upon now for loss of my dear & tender wife, whose it hath pleased 5 Lord some months ^{since} to remove from me, which has greatly concerned my outward man, though as to 5 dealings of 5 Lord in 5 respect I acquire; & am comforted in 5 his presence attended her to 5 last she dyings in great peace, & I am satisfied has her part in 5 inheritance of 5 blessed, so we have love to thee, & thy wife (whose thou wast was wealthy) if living, as to all Dr. Fred.
I rest thine in 5 blessed truth

Wm Ingram

I have not heard of 5 20th thou mentions — upon it seems to have seems to do with it as by these directed — thy father in 5 great Boston (Mass. Mission) was here many about 5 time I recd thy letter, to whom I communicated 5 knowledge of thy wellfare & thy wife was acceptable unto him

William Ingram
London

June 29. 1888.

to

Phineas Pemberton
Pennsylvania

1897